A Brilliant Reception to the President.

Proviso—to Receive Their Committee—A Comparative View—in Close Consultation, Etc.

A Brilliant Reception to the President.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—The first of a series of official dinners in honor of the president and Mrs. Harrison was given last night at their palatial residence on Rhode Island avenue. It was a brilliant affair, especially noticeable even in a season marked by such social successes as have already been recorded and which are still to come. Dinner was served at 7 o'clock in the grand dining hall, a superb apartment, and all the appointments were rich and in exquisite taste.

Those invited to meet the president and Mrs. Harrison at dinner were the secretary of state, the secretary of war and Mrs. Elkins, the secretary of the navy, the postmaster general and Mrs. Wanamaker, the secretary of the interior and Mrs. Noble, the secretary of agriculture and Mrs. Bush, Senator Harlan, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Ward and Mrs. Marston, Mrs. Rhinelander Jones, Mrs. Schofield, Mrs. State, ex-Speaker Reed and Mrs. Harrison.

After dinner, a reception was given to which several hundred invitations had been issued. The reception lasted from 9 till midnight, and was enlivened by the discourse of popular airs by the Marine band, which was present in full force.

The next dinner in course is that to be given by Secretary and Mrs. Blaine on the 20th instant.

At the Tongue River Agency

Washington, Jan. 12.—Gen. Merritt in a telegram to the secretary of war expresses apprehension of trouble at the Tongue River agency unless some matters are changed with great care. He has stepped into the breach between the Indians and the civil authorities with a view of pacifying the Indians.

The trouble originally grew out of the fact that a white man made depredations upon an Indian's cattle, it so frequently that the Indian held him to be a thief. The white man, however, got a warrant for the Indian and placed it in the hands of the sheriff to serve. An intimation was thrown out that if the sheriff attempted to serve the warrant the Indians would come to the rescue of their countryman. At this stage of the proceeding Gen. Merritt stepped in and so far has been able to preserve the peace, but he is apprehensive of results, and has so informed the war department.

Will It Nullify the Effect of the Law?

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—The vice-president laid before the senate a bill concerning a cession from the interior department asking an immediate appropriation of $10,000 for the support of the Sioux Indians. The bill was referred to the committee on Indian affairs, which expressed an opinion that unless the appropriation was made before February 1 next, the result might possibly be a disturbance of last year. The communication was referred to the committee on appropriations.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—All matters relating to the World's fair which are referred to the public appropriation committee will be considered by its subcommittee on deficiencies.

was the first purely party outbreak of the session and during the discussion much interest was manifested.

A Comparative View.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Customs receipts at the port of New York for the first ten days of January aggregated $3,410,185, as against $4,278,150 for the corresponding period of 1891. The net gain in the treasury is $125,912,528, as against $16,383 for the corresponding period of 1891. Customs receipts show a decided tendency to increase. The total receipts of the government for the first ten days of the present month have averaged over $1,000,000 a day.

To Validate the Naturalization.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—The sum of 1890, a number of citizens of Maine were naturalized by the municipal court of Biddeford, which naturalization was declared illegal by the court of last resort of that state. Mr. Cummings, of New York, yesterday introduced a bill to validate the naturalization. The bill was introduced in the last congress, but failed to pass. This time, Mr. Cummings thinks the bill will go through.

In Close Consultation.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Secretary Blaine was at the state department a short time yesterday morning. The British minister called upon him to talk over foreign sea matters, but the secretary did not call on the departmental secretary. Blaine and Tracy called on the president and the two remained in consultation some time. Secretary Blaine again called at the white house at 4 o'clock and remained some time with the president.

Where Were the Protestors?

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Contrary to expectations Senators Turpie and Voorhees did not appear before the senate committee on the judiciary yesterday to protest against favorable action on the nomination of Judge Wood, of Indiana, as judge of the fifth judicial circuit court. The other nominations of circuit judges were discussed, but action was deferred.

More Pensions Proposed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Representative Taylor, of Ohio, yesterday reintroduced in the house his bill of the last congress granting service and disability pensions to officers, soldiers and sailors and marines in the army and navy of the United States of the late war, their widows and orphans, and for other purposes.

A Popular Scheme.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Postmaster-General Wanamaker's scheme for postal delivery and collection in rural districts is being supported by petitions from various parts of the country, which find their way into the petition box of the house.

Dr. Graves Sent to the Penitentiary.

DETROIT, Col., Jan. 12.—Dr. Graves was taken to the penitentiary at Canon City last evening. Besides the officers of the guard, who accompanied him, there were several spectators, mostly former patients. Steel cuffs were fastened to the wrists of the犯人, and chains bound his feet. This is the first time he was exposed to such indignity. He viewed the situation coolly, and was courteous and pleasant to the officers in charge. The doomed man talked freely on all topics but that of his suppressed guilt.

Dr. Graves was not permitted to see his wife before departing. She is improving gradually, and is ignorant that her husband had ever been confined in prison.

During his confinement he has been allowed to write to his wife, and she has been allowed to visit him.

AN OLD-FASHIONED IDEA.

Used to be thought that the only way to save money was to "put it down" in a little pot or something, without a time, as it could be saved. No one ever thought of giving interest on his savings or of making the money in the pot earn anything. It is so now. People have grown into better ideas. So small sums as 40 cents per month may be saved and profitably invested in the Equitable Building and Loan Society of Decatur. Some as high as $12 per month may also be saved in this bank. Every dollar earns the same as every other dollar. No preferred stockholders. Women and children may carry stock. It will soon buy girls the value of a dollar, properly handled.

The Equitable is a national organization.

CASES IN COURT.

Arguments in the Action of Macon County vs. H. W. Waggoner.

In the circuit court to-day Judge Wright has devoted his entire attention to hearing arguments of attorneys in the debt case of Macon County vs. ex-County Clerk H. W. Waggoner et al. The county is represented by Estate's Attorney Mills and the defendants by I. D. Walker and Buckingham & Schroll. The declaration had been amended, and the defendants entered a demurrer to the amended declaration. The claim is for about $2,800.

The breaches in the declaration allege that the ex-county clerk in his settlements with the county filed false reports and did not report fees received that had been collected. To sit this a general denial is entered. Mr. Buckingham in his argument held that neither Mr. Waggoner nor his bondsmen were liable for the reason that regular settlements had been made in compliance with the law, and that every possible opportunity was afforded the county board committees to examine the books and compare the reports with the entries on the dockets. It was the duty of the committees to make the comparisons, and it was on their reports and recommendations that the money claimed was paid. It was denied that Mr. Waggoner had made false reports or had held back any fees collected from the entry. Mr. Buckingham quoted liberally from the supreme court decision in the Foster case, and attacked the breaches in the declaration with considerable spirit and vigor. Mr. Mills had a different interpretation of the supreme court decisions, and argued at length that the declaration is good, and that the court held that where money was paid solely officials improperly by the county board that the officials and bondsmen were liable. Decision reserved.

In the value were a number of garments belonging to a woman, and also some letters which will serve to identify and locate the young woman. Her name is not positively known, but it will doubtless be learned before-morrow, and possibly the girl who is supposed to be a school teacher will be placed under arrest. Her people are supposed to reside in Friend's Creek township or in the vicinity of Weldon, in DeWitt county. The story of the trouble and Dr. Pace's arrest is given on another page of this issue.
